FROM MAJOR ANDREW LEWIS.

AUGUSTA Apl. yo. 8th. 1757

SIR

I have no Instruction at this time by which I Can Act. I have Been at Wms.burg Latly as the Governor was not at home Nothing Could be Done, tho I Represented the Distressed Condition of the Frontiers in as Just a manner as in my Power. I was Referd to you Sir for funder Orders. as it was suposed you would Receive Orders from Lord Loudon. my Remaining longer here will be of no Service. I impationtly weat your Orders which Shall be Strictly Observd

When I was at Wmsburg I heard of 180 Cherokees Coming to Virginia. but has not Since heard any more of them—As there is no Assistance orderd from Our Nighbouring County Our Forts will Soon be Deserted —

I am Sir your Most Obedean Servt. ANDW. LEWIS
